"Hello..." it's Aa'ron (2013), and it's time for Wednesday's Child to give Aa'ron an audience! Aa'ron is a light-hearted and up-beat preschooler who loves playing outdoors and kicking back to some tunes, particularly the hit song "Hello" from Adele.

Aa'ron has a pleasant personality and enjoys interacting with others. He is currently into toy cars and blocks, and is quick to invite others to join him for interactive play. Aa'ron is bright and expresses himself through short sentences such as "go outside". Aa'ron has the motor skills to ride his tricycle and loves to jump and run ... as well as just taking it easy in his swing.

Aa'ron didn't get an easy start in life, though; he was born premature and has some related special needs that include Gastroesophageal Reflux and Reactive Airway Disease that requires G-tube feeding and oxygen during sleep. Aa'ron is receiving speech and occupational therapies and is attending Head Start three days a week to help his developmental progress.

Aa'ron is currently in California, dreaming about what he might grow up to be. And while Aa'ron keeps on jammin' we continue to put out the call, trusting that Aa'ron's forever family will hear and like to meet to go over everything. For now, we suggest tuning into Wednesday's Child to get a look and listen at Aa'ron – then call to learn more about adoption at 1-866-921-ADOPT (2367).
